Makes Oath He Knows Mr. Kilgore

"I have read one of the circulars issued by John P. Kilgore, Democratic candidate for sheriff, in which he tries to sidestep the issue that he served as a deputy sheriff during strikes. I have positive knowledge that Mr. Kilgore did serve as deputy at Loyalhanna when he had charge of a number of deputies and I worked under him. Mr. Kilgore can certainly recall the fact that at one time one of our own men was almost killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the office of the company."

Governor Punctures Weaver Statement

Chief Executive In Strong Letter States That He Is Distressed That Utterance Is Used Against Temperance Candidate. True Situation Was Misrepresented To Governor.

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh in a letter addressed to Rev. H. S. Piper of Scottdale, repudiates the statement given out in Greensburg, October 5th, by James B. Weaver of Latrobe, and alleged to be from the governor. In his letter the governor says:

"I am greatly distressed that any utterance of mine should have any bearing upon the judicial fight now pending in your county.

"I can not see by what right or reason I should be considered as having in any way taken any side in that contest, which I recognize to be solely the business of the people of Westmoreland county, beyond the simple fact that I do hope to see next year a solid delegation for Local option sent from Westmoreland county as that County did send such a delegation to the last Legislature.

"It is this interest, and this only that concerns me in your County. The matter of your local offices is one which your own people must solve, exercising their own consciences and sense of justice in doing what to them is right, in the welfare of their own people." 1t

First Defeat

Monessen High school football team met their first defeat of the season yesterday afternoon when they met the heavy McKeesport team, the final score being 35 to 0. Neither the players nor coaches are discouraged with the outcome of the game, as the boys were greatly outweighed and although handicapped by an average weight of 15 pounds to the man, they fought gallantly and during the first half held the Tube City aggregation to a 7 to 0 score.

In the second half however, they could withstand the rushes of their heavy opponent and repeated gains were made through the local's line. The backfield men and ends of the local team played a magnificient game and after the first half, the McKeesport aggregation done away with open playing and end run, relying entirely on their heavy line to make the opening for their gains. The game was interesting despite the score, two of the McKeesport touchdowns coming from an intercepted forward pass and run along the line which should not have gained them more than a yard.

The largest crowd that ever witnessed a football game at McKeesport was in Cycler park yesterday and this crowd was augmented by over 200 local rooters, 158 leaving on the special train while fifteen automobiles carried the remainder. The defeat did not discourage the locals and they will get down to hard work in preparation for the contest with Charleroi and Monongahela. Following is the lineup of both teams:

McKeesport—35	Monessen—0
Wasmuth	l e....Newhouse
Badders-Handsel	l t.....Hess
Williams	l g..Wild-Eller-Savo

RESPONSE TO "FINAL WORD"

There are three ways of answering criticism of the official who asks re-election. First, to justify the official acts if they can be defended; Second, to call the criticism, falsehood, and the critic a liar; Third, to assail the opposing candidate with personalities.

The first method is legitimate, responsive and triumphant if it answers the criticism; the second and third methods are borrowed from the Fish Wife and the Wharf Rat, alike void of argument, abounding in invective and insulting to the intelligence to which they appeal.

In the circular referred to by Mr. Sell under the caption "Final Word," it is charged:

1st. That the Controller's office is at present conducted on too expensive a scale. It now costs the County $31,600.00 for the Controller's and his three clerks' salaries for the term. It has been run and I have pledged myself to stay on the job and efficiently run it with one employee at a cost of $22.000 for the term. The item of $9,600.00 saved may not seem much to Mr. Sell but it does mean something to the taxpayer. Has he answered this charge, Mr. Voter?

2nd That $1,213.50 was approved by him and paid to his relative John H. Trescher, after the claim, if there ever was any, was thrown out of court, and payment was refused by a former board of commisioners and two former controllers. Has this charge been answered in a "Final Word?"

3rd. That $44,008.10 was approved and paid for the construction of the Dennison-Marguerite road, when the county engineer's estimate was $25,900 on which the project was submitted to and approved by the Grand Jury. Has this been side-stepped or answered?

4th. That the warrant for $1,500.00 granted by the county commissioners to the Farm Bureau in the interest of agriculture was held up by him until after he compelled certain of the interested farmers, men of large wealth, to substitute their bonds to raise an additional sum when they had already given their written guarantee therefor to the satisfaction of the commissioners and the State and United States authorities.

The books of the Controller's office is the Caesar to which Mr. Sell appeals to evidence his "ripe experience" and "efficiency." There is precisely where the above figures have been secured. It is not the language of purse proud arrogance nor the attempt to discredit a political opponent, who has not the good fortune to be worth a quarter million dollars, but an answer to the above mentioned official acts that concerns the voters in the coming election.

He whom the Gods would destroy, they first make mad.

Enjoy Party

A joly crowd of Monessen people gathered at the Presbyterian manse last evening to enjoy the Hallowe'en party given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid ociety. The attendance was good and the guests had the time of their lives. All came in costume and they made merry in the house which was decorated in keeping with the occasion. Corn fodder and pumkins were arranged about the rooms, while black cats and goblins adorned the walls. The lunch consisting of gingerbread, pumpkin pies, doughnuts, sandwiches, nuts and candy, etc., was served in the cellar, where a long table covered with a red table cloth was spread with the delicacies.

The Four Amendments

Pennsylvania voters are asked to approve of four amendments to the constitution at the general election to be held Tuesday of next week. The first, that with regard to woman suffrage, is familiar to everyone. The other amendments have been so little discussed that a few words with reference to them are timely.

The second amendment is of direct concern to Philadelphia alone, yet it is necessary under the basic law to be approved by a majority of the people of the entire commonwealth. It provides for enlarging the borrowing capacity of Philadelphia for permanent improvements. The city is very ambitious with regard to improvements of the character mentioned, but will be unable to raise the amount of money unless this amendment is adopted.

The purpose of the third amendment is to clear away all doubts as to the constitutionality of that very worthy measure, the Workingmen's Compensation Law the validity of which is beink questioned unless this changein the fundamental law is authorized.

The purpose of the fourth amendment is to legalize the Torrens law for real estate transfers which aims to cheapen such transfers and make it much easier to trace titles. It is said that acts similar to the Torrens law are now in effect in most of the states.

DR. A. D. MILLER

TO THE VOTERS OF WESTMORELAND COUNTY

What is a laboring man? I will let you answer that question. You shall be the judge of both my honesty and fitness to fill this important office. It is true that I have not come from East Liberty, Allegheny county, seven years ago, and I have not lived in Pleasant Unity six years and three months, and nine months in Irwin. I was born and raised in good old Westmoreland county, as my mother and father were before me and I expect to die in it. Now, what is a workingman? Is he poor, does he stint himself and his family so that he can buy medicine for the old and feeble? Does he pay the rent of widows and buy clothes, food and coal for the orphans? Does he work for the same people for nothing for thirty years because they are feeble in mind and body? Does he attend the crippled and non-paying night and day, snow and rain, Sundays and holidays whether he himelf is sick or well. Now if this is a working man, then I am one, or if it means a professional man, then I am one. You can prove the truth of what I say by asking anyone that knows me. If you think I deserve this office, vote for me, I shall appreciate it.

Your friend,

GOOD RECORD MADE BY HERMAN HAMEL

While a Member of the Westmoreland County Poor Board for Four Years

He Is Now A Candidate For County Commissioner.

Herman Hamel, candidate for election to the office of County Commissioner, was a Director of the Poor for the years 1904, 1905, 1906 and 1907.

The minutes of thePoor Board show that the method now in practice of paying bills and accounting for receipts and expenditures originated during his tenure of office.

The first step was a "Motion by Mr. Hamel, seconded by Mr. Saxman; That all warrants in payment of bills passed, be fully made out before being signed by the President and Secretary of the Board." This innovation put a stop to the signing of warrants in blank.

The Poor Board then considered it wise to put the Superintendent of the home under bond because of the great amount of money coming into his hands. This minute appears:

"Moved by Mr. Hamel, seconded by R. M. Loughrey, that the Superintendent be required to give bond with good security in the sum of $5,000.00 to be approved by the Board, unanimously carried."

The course pursued by the Board at that time applying to the moneys of the county is disclosed by the following minutes:

"It was moved by H. Hamel, seconded by R. M. Loughrey, That the Superintendent be directed to make settlement at the end of each quarter during the year, with the County Controller, for funds received during the quarter and pay over to the County Treasurer the full amount in his hands at each settlement. Unanimously carried."

"It was moved by H. Hamel, seconded by Loughrey. That the Superintendent make a monthly report of receipts and expenditures for the preceeding month, at the first regular meeting of the Board in each month for its approval. Unanimously carried."

"It was moved by H. Hamel, seconded by R. N. Gay: That the Superintendent provide and keep a daily itemized account book of receipts and expenditures. Unanimously carried."

An examination of the books showing moneys paid into the county Treasury by the Poor Board working under these changed methods, shows a great saving of money for the County when compared with the amounts previously turned in.

The records show that the following amounts were paid in for the few years previous to Mr. Hamel's tenure of office and the years following the action of the Board above set forth.

Paid to County Treasurer:

1900	.....	$1,970.48
1901	.....	3,657.71
1902	.....	933.96
1903	.....	1,227.25
1904	.....	2,574.03
1905	...Notice Increase...	9,539.48
1906	During Hamel's Term	9,539.88
1907	.....	10,506.05
1908	.....	10,261.02
1909	.....	10,518.82
1910	.....	10,203.98
1911	.....	13,042.11
1912	.....	13,177.69
1913	.....	16,677.98
1914	.....	10,101.09
1915 to Sept. 27th	.....	14,367.71

Herman Hamel proved his ability to do business and save the taxpayers money while Poor Director. Give him a chance on the Board of County Commissioners.

Vote for him. Get your neighbors to vote for him. It is a business and not a political issue.

The Records of the Poor Board are open to all and Mr. Hamel can show many other instances in which he saved money for the taxpayers.

We, the undersigned Ex-Poor Directors, who served on the Poor Board with Herman Hamel, certify to the above.

SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER!

I am a woman.
I know a woman's trials.
I know her need of sympathy and help.

If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week.

If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, falling or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feeling along the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living,

I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT

and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers postpaid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address,

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Monessen Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.

When they fail to do this, the kidneys are weak.

Backache and other kidney ills may follow.

Help the kidneys do their work.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy.

Monessen people endorse their worth.

Mrs. J. F. Leonard, 7 McKee avenue, Monessen, says: "I was bothered by a dull, heavy pain in my back for several years. While doing my housework, my back throbbed just like a toothache. If I stooped over, the pain caught me and I could hardly straighten. I often got so dizzy that I had to sit down. My head ached and my eyes were effected. I felt tired and languid all the time. I tried everything but didn't improve until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co. The sceond box drove away the trouble. Occasionally I takea few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills when I work hard or catch cold. They never fail to help me."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Leonard had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

CHAPTER LXI.

The Discovery.

The two kingdoms now hung on the fate of two refugees, two castaways, themselves forlorn and hopeless. Even as Grahoffen's king and its leading man of affairs pondered the absence of these two, so likewise the kingdom of Gretzhoffen was concerned in their absence, in their welfare, in their future, in their return.

Count Frederick stood on the deck of the Prinz Adler liner and fronted the captain of that vessel, who was severe in his resentment of the liberties he deemed to have been taken with himself and his ship.

"I tell you," said he, "I have nothing to do with your little war here. I am neutral—I am a carrier in the open trade of the open sea. My government will demand reparation for this insult to our flag."

"Sir," said Count Frederick, "your government be damned! I will take my chances with your government. Of what use will your government be to you if we blow your ship out of the water?"

"You threaten me, then?"

"No, I do not deal in threats. I tell you that I know the persons whom I mentioned are on this ship. I mean to take them off."

"And I tell you again that there are no such passengers on my ship. The ship's lists show all who have sailed with us. You may look for yourself—examine our books all you like. Do you take us for pirates—are we beyond all responsibilities?"

"I do not call you pirates," said Count Frederick, calmly. "I only call you dupes. I believe you have been deceived. You are not in possession of all the facts. My own men have told me that these persons were to be smuggled aboard the ship."

"Heiliger Gott!" mused the captain. "What is this that has been undertaken here? I never discovered it. Who and what are these persons—if there be indeed any such aboard?"

"Two, as I said. One is a man of small rank, no more than a faithful servant, powerful and resourceful himself, once loyal in my own service, now loyal in that of his mistress."

"And she—the other?"

"Yes, a young American of youth and much beauty. She was in this country on business of her own. Without plan she became involved in affairs between these two monarchs. She has been the victim of evil fortune, not through fault of her own. Now, I am telling you the truth—since I have gained my purpose of an audience with you. You may rely upon what I have said, captain. This is the truth, so far as I know it."

"Then why not let them sail for their own country—if she has been injured here why not let her go back to her own country? I am booked for New York. If that be a city of her native land, why not that port as well as any other? And how shall I know your own motives?"

Count Frederick paused in thought at this. "True—that is true," said he. "Very well, we will search your ship. When we find the young woman let her decide what she wishes to do. If she says she wishes to go back to her home, I will not prevent it. But if she be asked to go back against her will, then I shall take her with me, no matter at what cost. At least she should have the choice of decision—she should not be stowed aboard like a dumb beast with no volition of her own."

"We are quite at one as to that," assented the captain. "Good, we will search the ship—I am convinced we shall not find these persons in any of the cabins."

"Stay," he added an instant later, "I recall that a short time back there was complaint of noises below decks! I sent some men to look into that. Where are they?"

He pressed a bell and soon one of his assistant officers came.

"Go, bring me the men I sent to examine the cargo a while ago. There was some talk of a noise as of loose animals in the hold."

After a time the officer returned, pushing before him two seamen. They were the same who had been dispatched on the errand mentioned. But they were not now as they had been then. Both bore marks of conflict, and of conflict which had not gone altogether to their favor.

"How, now, you dogs?" cried the captain. "What's wrong with you? Have you been fighting among yourselves?"

One, quicker witted than the other, gave his assent to this at once. The second was not so fortunate.

"'Twas the animals," said he, with cunning not quite equal to the issue.

"What? You disagree, then?" said the captain. "What does this mean, fellows? Animals? What animals! Lions?—tigers?—I did not know we carried such!"

The sailor hung his head, and the captain's suspicions grew.

"You are covering up something here. Speak, you ruffians, and speak the truth."

"Captain," began the man once more, "we are innocent. But we found two stowaways below, and thinking to bring them up, they fell upon us and beat us—a man and a woman."

"How did they get aboard—where are they then—who are they?"

"They must have come in with the freight by the lift from the dock, captain. The young woman—she is beautiful—and as you say, she is like a tiger. As to the man, yes, he was like a lion. They fought us, you see."

"Where are they now, spitzbuben ruffians?"

The speaker paled suddenly. "They are there in the hold," he said.

"Lead us to them then."

They turned to find their way to the lower portions of the ship, but even as they did so they met an interruption. An agitated man, grimy and dirty, in oil-stained clothing, came running towards the captain's room—none less than the chief engineer of the vessel who obviously had been engaged in commoner duties than naturally belonged to him.

Animated Weekly. Used by all the leading theatres of America. The 23rd episode of "The Diamond from the Sky." Our patrons prefer to do without their meals rather than miss this picture.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

TUESDAY— "Via Wireless," a Gold Rooster Play in five parts, adapted from the great play of the same name by Paul Armstrong and Winchell Smith, featuring Gail Kane and Bruce McRae. Supported by Paul McAllister and a splendid cast. Marsh, a draughtsman in the gun factory of John Durant, is swindled by Edward Pinkney, Durant's general manager, out of the huge royalty to be paid should a gun of Marsh's invention prove a success. Pinkney loves Maisie, but is outrivaled by Lieut. Somers, U. S. N. Somers has also invented a gun which he gives to be cast to the Durant Iron Works, and which if successful, will do Pinkney out of his expected graft on the Marsh invention. Pinkney takes good care that the Somers gun is "kilSPECIAL PROGRAM led" in making. He then misrepresent Somers to Maisie and her father and although Maisie loves the Lieutenant, she feels she must give him up. Accompanied by her mother and Pinkney, she goes in the Durant yacht for a cruise. The boat hits a mine and in the rush to leave her, Maisie is trapped in the wireless room. She sends out the S. O. S. signal taught her by Leiut. Somers. The Lieutenant, aboard a U. S. cruiser, arrives at the side of the doomed ship just in time to make a sensational rescue

WEDNESDAY—"The Yellow Jacket" featuring Lillian Lorraine and William Courtleigh in "Neal of the Navy" The story: Mrs. Hardin, Neal Hardin, Annette Ilington and Joe Welcher are rescued by a U. S. cruiser when the tramp steamer Princes goes down. Pinned to Annette's underclothing is a map showing the location of Lost Isle. Hernandez and Ponto,, two evil soldiers of fortune know of the existence of Lost Isle and seeks the map. The second episode opens eighteen years later. Neal is a clean cut,manly young American, while Joe is a slinking young man of bad habits. Hernandez and Ponto are drug smugglers and have, as their slave and beast of burden, a gigantic beast-man, bereft of all reason. A young adventuress, Inez Castro, is in league with the smugglers and insinuates herself into the Hardin household to steal the map of Lost Isle. Hernandez, Ponto and their brute-man are apprehended in an attempt to land some drugs of the Seaport coast and a running fight follows. Mrs. Hardin explains to Annette about her heritage of Lost Isle and shows her the map. They are all alarmed by many shouts outside and run out in time to see the smugglers, pursued by the officers coming toward the house After Annette is knocked down by Hernandez in his mad rush, Neal is mainly instrumental in capturing the two outlaws who are put in the town jail. Late that night the brute tears out the bars from their cell and frees them. Neal decides to try for Annapolis The next episode will be "The Failure." Watch for it.

THURSDAY—The Universal presents Hobart Bosworth in "Fatherhood." A drama of Arizona and the human appeal. Lon Gilchrit, a middle-aged and immensely wealthy ranchman, drives into a southwestern settlement and meets a pretty waitress in a lunch room After several such visits he proposes to her. She is astounded after their marriage to find that her husband instead of being a poor cowboy as he had thought, is a millionaire. Gilchrist, a bachelor all his days, pays little attention to his wife and she suffers under his neglect. Finally she can stand her isolation no longer and leaves for the settlement. Lon thinks she has left with a handsome young cowboy who he sometimes asked to take her to countryside gatherings Later he finds he is mistaken The girl becomes a mother and sends a postal of her baby to Lon who races to the settlement to see his child. There is an affecting reconcilliation and the ranchman, his lesson learned, thereafter makes his wife his pal in all his interests.

FRIDAY—B A. Rolfe presents Edward Connelly, the estimable character actor in "Marse Covington," George Ade's picturesque romance of the Southland., A great picture. One everybody should see.

Big Hearted George Rosenberry the Laboring Man's Candidate for County Treasurer; Makes a Proper and Just Appeal to His Fellow Laborer for Support.

I have been nominated on the Democratic ticket without opposition for the office of County Treasurer to be voted for at the general election Tuesday coming; of all the candidates for election at this time, I believe I am the only workingman on the ticket; the balance being professional, business or retired gentlemen. Of all the outgoing county officials there is but one who is a representative of the working man to wit "Jim" Cramer, the present County Treasurer.

I would therefore ask you to kindly give me your vote and influence and assit me to make that election sure, pledging myself to fill the office with honor to you and credit to myself. It will be impossible for me to see all the voters of the county before election, hence this appeal.

Very Truly Yours
Geo. H. Rosenberry,
Conductor Penna. Railroad,

John S. Johnston

Democratic Candidate for Register of Wills

Three reasons why the voters of Westmoreland county should support John S Johnston.

1st He is a workingman, "carpenter by trade," well qualified to fill the office.

2nd. His opponent was brought into the county about 12 years ago. Was a Democrat until he went into David Miller's office when he became a Republican in order to get an office and has been in the court house ever since. J. S. Johnston came into the county nearly 40 years before him for to work, and has been working ever since.

3rd. If the old adage is true that "A word to the wise is sufficient," so should these few words to the workingmen be Nuf Ced. 18-3t

BIG SHOW TO-NIGHT

The Great Spiegel Amusement company will open a two weeks' engagement in the opera house this evening with one of the best minstrel shows on the road. Twenty people compose this company which carries its own rag time band, said to be one of the classiest musical organizations of its kind traveling over the country. Besides the minstrel show the company carries a number of trained beavers, and some of the best bull dog performers on the road. The Great Spiegel himself is an orator,

"The Great Spiegel" at the opera house tonight lecturer, demonstrator and philanthropist who has created a great sensation throughout the United States. Madame Madella, one of the members of the company, has the most beautiful head of luxurious hair in the world. The hair is noted for its odd and rare golden color and touches the ground.

The Great Spiegel lectures on current topic of the day, especially on health and hygiene and Madam Madella on beauty and health of the skin and complexion. Band concerts will be given each evening at 7 o'clock. The show changes its program every night and the opera house will be in an invitable condition for the public and will be well lighted and heated. Press reports from many larger cities are very flattering and pay special attention to the music of the band and the lectures of the Great Spiegel.

"Madam Madella," at the opera house tonight

The show will open tonight and on Monday evening a big free show will be given to adults. Children will be admitted on a small admission.

REPUBLICANS, STAND FIRM!

Never in the history of this country has it been more important for the Republicans to stand firmly and determinedly together than at the coming general election. The issues involved are not, of course, national, but the result is certain to have important bearing.

Sustaining the Republican policies of protection and prosperity at the coming fall election will guarantee the return of the Republican party to power in this nation and the return of the Republican party to power will mean a restoration of the policies of that party with an assurance of general prosperity.

It will serve the best interests of the entire country to sustain the Republican party at the polls in November. Pennsylvania will be heard from, so will our great industrial county in no uncertain way.

Republicans of Westmoreland County present a solid front and CAST YOUR BALLOT STRAIGHT!

Miss Irene Hazlett entertained the members of the S. C. & C. S. club at her home on McKee avenue last evening. Thirty guests were present including several out-of-town people and all report a most enjoyable evening. Games in keeping with the season and music were the principal features of the entertainment. The home was decorated in Hallowe'en style and a dainty lunch of cider, pumpkin pie, candy, sandwiches, and apples was served.
